Part I Reading-based quiz

Due August 19, 2012

1. Consult Chapters 13-15 in the text book, A History of Western Society Since 1300 by John P. McKay, Bennett D. Hill and John Buckler. You may also consult other sources; just be sure they are reliable (Wikipedia is not always reliable). There will also be some resources on Moodle.

2. Online Quiz: Take a timed quiz over these topics:

- Lorenzo de' Medici/ Lorenzo the Magnificent, 1449-1492 (who, what, when, where, why, how)
- Treaty of Lodi, 1454-1494 (who, what, when, where, consequences of its failure)
- Concordat of Bologna (causes, effects, people involved)
- Niccolo Machiavelli (who, what, when, where, why, how)
- Pope Clement VII (who, what, when, major events as pope)
- Michelangelo (who, what, when, where, why)
- Desiderius Erasmus (who, what, when, where, why)
- Sir Thomas More (who, what, when, where, why, how)
- Charles V, the Holy Roman Emperor (who, what, when, where, why, how)
- Diet of Worms (who, what, when, where, why, how)

Part II Geography

1. There will be a map test on the first day of class. Be able to locate the following:

Salt Water	Rivers	Mountains	Islands
Adriatic Sea	Danube	Alps	Corsica
Baltic Sea	Loire	Pyrenees	Iceland
Black Sea	Rhine		Ireland
English Channel	Thames		Sardinia
Mediterranean Sea			Sicily

Denmark	Augsburg	Helsinki	Moscow	Rome	Vienna
Iberian	Berlin	Istanbul	Naples	St. Petersburg	Warsaw

2. Consider how you will answer the following question on the quiz:

Why is important to know geography when studying history?

I will expect specific examples, not simply a general statement. As you are reading Chapters 13-15, note occasions when geography was important culturally, economically or politically.

3. There are plenty of maps in the text book and online. Sporcle.com has many geography quizzes.

Keep going.
