Learning target(s): I can be a good listener. I can use hyphens correctly.

Agenda:

- 1. Speeches
- 2. Grammar?

Homework:

- Speech reflection

Grammar: Hyphens

Hyphen Rule 1

- If you are inventing an adjective using two or three words, hyphenate them if they precede the noun they are modifying.
- Example: The first-ever braiding competition
- Example: The rough-and-tumble game
- EXCEPTION: if the first word is an adverb ending in -ly, omit the hyphen
- Example: The hardly awake teenager

More Hyphen Examples

- I may tell pale-hearted fear it lies (Shakespeare)
- This easy-to-bake pie is so good!
- Charlie Chaplin is a twentieth-century icon.
- SWAT team members wear bullet-proof vests.
- They are in a long-distance relationship.
- This hard-to-beat team has a lot of heart.
- The tragically ending movie had us in tears.

Try it.

Create two-word (or even three-word) adjectives preceding 5 of these nouns. Be creative and have fun! Hyphenate when appropriate.

doll

hoody

unicorn

dragon

spy

footage

jersey

turkey

daffodil

pie

snow day

buck

Hyphen Rule 2

- Use hyphens to divide/connect compound words (usually nouns)
- Examples: Sister-in-law, ex-wife, commander-in-chief
- List 5 more.

Hyphen Rule 3

- Use hyphens to simplify or to prevent confusion
- Example 1: First- and second-generation iPods
- Example 2: re-sign (versus resign) or re-cover (versus recover)
- Can you think of others?
