

CP English 11

November 25, 2014

Learning target(s):

Agenda:

- 1. Speeches
- 2. Grammar

Homework:

- Have a good vacation!

Reflection

- Speakers: write about a half page (single spaced) describing how you think you did and what you would do differently if you were presenting this again to Mr. Hamen's class Monday.
- Listeners: write about a half page (single spaced) grading one of the speakers today. What was effective? What could have been better? Be specific. Prove you were paying attention.

Grammar: Hyphens

Hyphen Rule 1

- If you are inventing an adjective using two or three words, hyphenate them if they precede the noun they are modifying.
- Example: The first-ever braiding competition
- Example: The rough-and-tumble game
- EXCEPTION: if the first word is an adverb ending in -ly, omit the hyphen
- Example: The hardly awake teenager

More Hyphen Examples

- I may tell pale-hearted fear it lies (Shakespeare)
- This easy-to-bake pie is so good!
- Charlie Chaplin is a twentieth-century icon.
- SWAT team members wear bullet-proof vests.
- They are in a long-distance relationship.
- This hard-to-beat team has a lot of heart.
- The tragically ending movie had us in tears.

Try it.

Create two-word (or even three-word) adjectives preceding 5 of these nouns. Be creative and have fun! Hyphenate when appropriate.

doll

hoody

unicorn

dragon

spy

footage

jersey

turkey

daffodil

pie

snow day

buck

Hyphen Rule 2

- Use hyphens to divide/connect compound words (usually nouns)
- Examples: Sister-in-law, ex-wife, commander-in-chief
- List 5 more.

- Artist-in-residence
- Man-at-arms
- Second-in-command
- Partner-in-crime
- Ex-convict
- Great-grandmother
- Half-moon
- Step-sister
- Dwarf-dwelling
- Charles-in-charge
- Hobbit-hole
- Hand-me-down

Hyphen Rule 3

- Use hyphens to simplify or to prevent confusion
- Example 1: First- and second-generation iPods
- Example 2: re-sign (versus resign) or re-cover (versus recover)
- Can you think of others?
