

Part I Multiple Choice Pick the BEST answer. 5 points

- ____ 1. In general, the clergy during the plague
- cared for the sick and buried the dead.
 - fled to monasteries in the countryside.
 - were relatively untouched by the epidemic.
 - refused to administer sacraments to plague victims.
 - helped to spread it further.
- ____ 2. The highly infectious nature of the plague was enhanced by
- the imposition of quarantine measures.
 - an influx of peasants seeking medical care.
 - urban congestion and lack of sanitation.
 - the total absence of health-care facilities.
 - the fall of Constantinople.
- ____ 3. During the Hundred Years' War, the English kings were supported by some French barons because the latter
- disapproved of the Babylonian Captivity.
 - were promised estates in England.
 - wanted to stop the French monarchy's centralizing efforts.
 - were economically dependent on the English wool trade.
 - believed the English had a legitimate claim.
- ____ 4. The English victory at the Battle of Crécy resulted from
- the chivalric superiority of the English knights.
 - their alliance with the Germans.
 - the effective use of longbows.
 - the use of hand-held firearms.
 - the introduction of the battering ram.
- ____ 5. One important mode of influencing public opinion used by the English and French kings during the Hundred Years' War was
- distribution of free grain to the populace.
 - proclaiming a crusade.
 - purchasing of votes.
 - blaming the other for the cause of the Black Death.
 - instructing priests to deliver patriotic sermons.

OVER

OVER

OVER

OVER

Part II Identify/define and explain the historical significance of five of the following. 10 pts.

1. Great Famine
2. bubo
3. killing of Jews
4. flagellants
5. quarantine
6. Isabella and Edward III
7. wool trade
8. Aquitaine

Identify (who/ what/ where)	Significance (consequences, how/why, effect of, indicative of)
ex. Joan of Arc = French peasant who led the army against England	ex. Breaking the gender barrier led the English to burn her as a witch, but her success also secured the French king's safety or

Part II Short Essay Pick and answer ONE of the following questions in good paragraph form (topic sentence supported with specific details). 10 points

Option 1: What were the economic and social effects of the Black Death in various parts of Europe? Consider different levels of society (nobles, peasants, merchants).

Option 2: How did the Hundred Years' War shape England and France? Consider changes not just in territory but in government, economics, military tactics and society.

Part I Multiple Choice Pick the BEST answer. 5 points

- ____ 1. In general, the clergy during the plague
- a. cared for the sick and buried the dead.
 - b. fled to monasteries in the countryside.
 - c. were relatively untouched by the epidemic.
 - d. refused to administer sacraments to plague victims.
 - e. helped to spread it further.
- ____ 2. The highly infectious nature of the plague was enhanced by
- a. the imposition of quarantine measures.
 - b. an influx of peasants seeking medical care.
 - c. urban congestion and lack of sanitation.
 - d. the total absence of health-care facilities.
 - e. the fall of Constantinople.
- ____ 3. During the Hundred Years' War, the English kings were supported by some French barons because the latter
- a. disapproved of the Babylonian Captivity.
 - b. were promised estates in England.
 - c. wanted to stop the French monarchy's centralizing efforts.
 - d. were economically dependent on the English wool trade.
 - e. believed the English had a legitimate claim.
- ____ 4. The English victory at the Battle of Crécy resulted from
- a. the chivalric superiority of the English knights.
 - b. their alliance with the Germans.
 - c. the effective use of longbows.
 - d. the use of hand-held firearms.
 - e. the introduction of the battering ram.
- ____ 5. One important mode of influencing public opinion used by the English and French kings during the Hundred Years' War was
- a. distribution of free grain to the populace.
 - b. proclaiming a crusade.
 - c. purchasing of votes.
 - d. blaming the other for the cause of the Black Death.
 - e. instructing priests to deliver patriotic sermons.

OVER

OVER

OVER

OVER

Part II Identify/define and explain the historical significance of five of the following. 10 pts.

- | | |
|--------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Great Famine | 5. quarantine |
| 2. bubo | 6. Isabella and Edward III |
| 3. killing of Jews | 7. wool trade |
| 4. flagellants | 8. Aquitaine |

Identify (who/ what/ where)	Significance (consequences, how/why, effect of, indicative of)
ex. Joan of Arc = French peasant who led the army against England	ex. Breaking the gender barrier led the English to burn her as a witch, but her success also secured the French king's safety

or

Part II Short Essay Pick and answer ONE of the following questions in good paragraph form (topic sentence supported with specific details). 10 points

Option 1: What were the economic and social effects of the Black Death in various parts of Europe? Consider different levels of society (nobles, peasants, merchants).

Option 2: How did the Hundred Years' War shape England and France? Consider changes not just in territory but in government, economics, military tactics and society.