Learning target(s): I can use semicolons and define new words.

Agenda:

- 1. Assign roles
- 2. College Day listening activity
- 3. Vocabulary
- 4. Semicolons
- 5. Macbeth

Homework:

- 1. Preview Act 3 roles
- 2. Page 55
- 3. Finish semicolons

Tally

- If you are keeping a daily record of anything (participation, being prepared, listening, not falling asleep, etc.), remember to make a note of today's successes.

Semicolons

- 1. I am finished cleaning the bathroom; now I can watch T.V.
- 2. We got lost on the way to the synagogue; however, we found a cool restaurant, so it's fine.
- 3. I have lots of things to do at work, including cleaning the bathrooms, mopping the floors, washing the windows; stocking the shelves, pulling the expired food, ordering items; helping customers, working the cash register, and depositing money.
- 4. My dog, Fufu the Brave, ran after the garbage truck yesterday, the one Mario drives, and almost got run over; but luckily she is pretty quick and managed to dodge the big tires just at the last minute, narrowly avoiding certain death.
